

THE COUNCIL.

ALMOST THE WHOLE DAY OCCUPIED CANVASSING THE VOTES.

The Southern Pacific Ordinance Postponed - Mayor Workman Holds Back-Printing Bids to Be Readvised-A Bridge Proposed Over the Southern Pacific Tracks.

The City Council met yesterday morning at the regular hour. Present: Messrs. Barrett, Book, Bosbyshell, Chandler, Cohn, Hanley, Miller, Lovell, Moriarty, Sinsbaugh, Teed and President Humphreys.

Mr. Cohn moved that the board proceed to canvass the votes cast in the city election of Monday last.

Judge Dunnigan called the attention of the Council to an alleged error in counting the votes in the First Ward between Earl and Patterson. He asked that they be recounted.

G. Wiley Wells appeared for M. D. Johnson and others, and asked that the entire vote of the city be recounted. He claimed that some ballots were wrongfully counted for his adversary, and also that the returns from precinct B of the Second Ward did not contain the tally-sheets, as required by law.

Mr. Book moved that the count be delayed to a special session, to give the attorneys of the interested parties an opportunity to present their respective claims. He moved that the counting be deferred to Friday at 10 a.m.

Clerk Teed read the provisions of the ordinance relating to counting the votes, in which ten days after election is set as the furthest limit of time for counting.

J. Marion Brooks addressed the board on behalf of Mr. McManis, and claimed that it is the duty of the board to canvass the returns as they appear on their face. He said the next Council can remedy any errors by a recount, and can declare any member of the Council elected regardless of what the count was.

THE RETURNS CANVASSED.

Mr. Barrett moved that the board canvass the returns as they appear, and that any contest be taken up and decided at a special meeting.

Mr. Cohn suggested that the votes might be canvassed now, and then, before the official result was declared, all parties dissatisfied with the returns might present their cases to the board and ask for a recount.

Mr. Cohn's motion was carried, and the official canvass was proceeded with.

Messrs. Cohn and Sinsbaugh were appointed a committee to open and read out the returns while Clerk Danforth marked down the result. This process took up the time till noon, when a recess was taken for lunch.

Afternoon Session.

The Council reconvened at 1:30 p.m., when, the Clerk not having the totals footed up, the regular business was proceeded with. At the request of President Humphreys, Mr. Chandler took the chair. Mr. Gibbs also made his appearance.

The report of the Finance Committee was read and its recommendations adopted.

Among them was one recommending that the City Surveyor endeavor to reduce the expenses of his office.

A bill from the City Surveyor for carriage hire was reported without recommending either way. Mr. Lovell explained that it was Mr. Lambie's own carriage for which he charged the city. The bill was referred back to the City Surveyor.

A resolution was offered from the Finance Committee that all city officials present to the Council a complete inventory of all city property in their possession by January 1st next. Carried.

A large number of bills were reported favorably and passed by the Council.

THE PRINTING AWARD REOPENED.

On motion of Mr. Hanley the bond of Ayers & Lynch of the Herald, for the city printing, was taken up for action. The bond is signed by G. W. Burton and H. S. Orme as sureties, in $5000 each.

Mr. Barrett moved that the bond and contract be approved.

Lost by the following vote: Ayers, Barrett, Book, Bosbyshell, Hanley, Moriarty, Teed and Humphreys—Nays, Chandler, Cohn, Miller, Lovell and Sinsbaugh—3.

On motion of Mr. Cohn, the Clerk was directed to advertise for new bids for city printing, to be presented next Monday.

Clerk Teed stated that the new contract is let the Express will charge at the rates mentioned in their bid.

Mr. Barrett moved that the

be now taken up.

Mr. Cohn moved that it be made a special order for Monday at 10 a.m., with the understanding that the property owners are to be present at that time at a title for a right of way through the Briswater tract satisfactory to the City Attorney and the attorney for the railroad company, and that in default of such arrangement being consummated by that time the Council will proceed to act on the pending ordinance without any further delay.

George W. Knox stated that about one-half of the money was subscribed at present and he believed that more could be raised by Monday. He could not promise that the whole $15,000 would be subscribed by that time. The property holders are trying to make an amicable arrangement between Messrs. Griffith and Lunt, and such an agreement was well under way. Griffith had now offered to change the route so that the curves would suit the railroad engineers and also to abandon his demand for a station on the tract.

Mr. Gibbs objected to further postponement.

Mr. Lovell hoped that the property-owners would not misunderstand the question, and bring in a subscription list instead of a deed for a right of way.

Mr. Cohn said that Mr. Griffith was more of an obstacle than the railroad company. The removal of the track from in front of his property on San Pedro street was of such value to him that he could well afford to give half of the $15,000 himself. If a deed was not presented Monday by the property-owners he should vote for the Fine-street route.

Mr. Cohn's motion to defer was carried—11 to 2. Messrs. Gibbs and Sinsbaugh voting in the negative.

THE WEST SYSTEM.

Mr. Barrett then moved that the Pacific sewage contract be taken up. Carried.

A communication was received from the South Side Irrigation Company, stating that it has agreed to relinquish all its right and interest in the San Pedro-street sewage under its contract with the city; the granting of a contract to the Pacific Sewage Company, and the acceptance of this communication by the Council to be a relinquishment of the former company's rights in the premises. The communication was accepted.

The bond of the Pacific Company was read by the Clerk. It is signed by W. S. Maxwell, attorney in fact, and the sureties are J. Downey Harvey, W. S. Moore, E. N. McDonald and Joseph Scherer, who qualify in $25,000 each.

Mr. Cohn did not think any of these parties were worth $25,000, or twice the amount of the surety, as required by law.

The bond had not been approved by the City Attorney, and was referred to the Finance Committee. The contract accordingly went over.

AURORA STREET AGAIN.

Mr. Hanley moved that the matter of the Aurora-street railroad crossings be taken up. Carried.

Judge Vail, on behalf of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, read an answer to the citation of the Council, and submitted a proposition as follows:

The railroad company proposes to build a bridge with a carriage-way 22 feet and a sidewalk 8 feet wide over and along Aurora street from the east line of Buena Vista street to the west line of San Fernando street. The foot bridge is to cross San Fernando street and terminate in stairs leading to the sidewalk. The drive-way will turn to the right and run along the west line of San Fernando street toward the south down an incline till it strikes the grade of the street at a distance of about four hundred feet from the bridge. The work is to be commenced within one and finished in four months.

All this will be done on condition that as long as the railroad company provides this bridge and keeps it in repair they shall be entitled to maintain as many tracks as they need across Aurora street, and leave their cars on them when they please—in short, that Aurora street between Buena Vista and San Fernando streets be abandoned by the city.

Mr. Gibbs moved to refer to the Bridge Committee, Board of Public Works, and the City Surveyor.

Mr. Bosbyshell asked that the First-street paving be pushed ahead.

Mr. Barrett said that he was looking after that, and had it all arranged. A large force would be set to work immediately.

A HITCH IN RAPID TRANSIT.

Mayor Workman appeared and stated that the ordinance relating to the Rapid Transit Railroad was open to some objections, which he hoped the Council would remedy without the necessity of his vetoing it. He read a communication from Councilman Cohn, giving several objections to the ordinance as passed. The Mayor asked for these several amendments to be incorporated and he would then sign it.

Mr. Chandler thought the ordinance could not now be changed without a regular reconsideration of the previous action in the matter.

Mr. Cohn called attention to his objections. One was that there was no provision to collect the license of $25 per car per year, as provided by statute. He spoke also of the imperfect map filed, which did not show with any precision the proposed line of track. It should have marked on it the radius of the different curves used and their points of beginning, so that the City Surveyor could retrace the line on the ground, and see that the company kept to it. He did not want any more such jobs as that made by the cable company on Spring street, which puts its curves and tracks where it pleases.

Mr. Lovell, who had taken the chair, ruled that the ordinance could not be acted upon until the Mayor returned it, either signed or vetoed.

Mr. Chandler, returning to preside, ruled that no action could be taken till the Mayor returned the ordinance to the Council. As His Honor would not do so, the matter was dropped without action being taken.

THE FIRST WARD RECOUNTED.

The election returns, as printed in another column, having been footed up by the Clerk, were read before the Council, and on motion of Mr. Cohn certificates were ordered issued to all the successful candidates excepting the councilmen-elect from the First Ward.

D. J. Lewis read a petition from Messrs. Patterson and Keenan, the Democratic candidates in that ward, alleging that many penciled ballots were cast for them which were not counted by the Inspector, and asking for a recount. Judge Dunnigan also supported the petition, and a recount was ordered by the board of the votes for councilmen in that ward.

Messrs. Cohn and Sinsbaugh were appointed a committee to recount the ballots.

The recount was asked for by Mr. Patterson, who is defeated for the short term by only 10 majority, on the ground that sufficient penciled votes were erroneously cast for him for the long term, and disallowed by the judges to change the result.

The committee of the Council took the same view as the judges, and did not allow the disputed votes, so the result will not be changed any way.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved medical inhalations and the Compound Oxygen treatment which has such a world-wide reputation in lung and nervous affections.

We take pleasure in announcing to the public the fact that of late we have introduced the COMPOUND OXYGEN TREATMENT with our system of the practice in the cure of Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption, Dyspepsia, Insomnia, Sore Throat, Catarrh Rheumatism and Nervous Prostration.

As it is well known, oxygen is the life-giving principle in the air we breathe and ozone in the air imparts that happy and buoyant feeling after thunderstorms. Persons often require more oxygen than is in the air around them and cause doors and windows to be opened, tear off collars, loosen the waist and call for a fan to displace the stifling and bring fresher air or more oxygen. Traveling is done mainly to resorts where the air contains more oxygen, and mountains are ascended to breathe the ozone, which is light and ascends from the earth.

Oxygen and ozone are gases, and must be stored up and used by inhaling them. Our apparatus for storing and giving these gases, compounded with other suitable agents, is perfect; and although they are not a cure-all, yet they are undoubtedly the greatest invention made in the last 50 years in any department of medicine, and the results are truly wonderful.

Oxygen acts by purifying the blood, thereby increasing the circulation, promotes absorption, improves digestion and assimilation, increases the capability of the lungs, and acts as a gentle stimulant to the nervous system.

The London, England, Lancet very truthfully says: "The Compound Oxygen treatment is the greatest discovery of the nineteenth century." Clergymen, statesmen, lawyers, doctors and all classes indiscriminately, whenever it is introduced, both use and recommend it.

I have seen so many cases of lung diseases cured that I do not so much as hope unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.

WASHINGTON CITY is already busy in making its preparations for the grand inaugural festivities of next March. Everything will be on a scale worthy of the great occasion.

The country is looking duely, so auspiciously have our winter rains fallen. With abundant rains, California's cup of blessings will be filled to the brim.

GEN. HARRISON ought to be able to make a good strong Cabinet out of the list of names that have been furnished him by the different newspapers of the country. It won't be the fault of the newspapers if he isn't.

TOKIO, Japan, is about to erect a monument to Gen. Grant. This should put to shame the dilatory indifference of New York, who still consents to let the Nation's hero sleep in her soil without a suitable monument to his memory.

SAM SMALL is not only a preacher of righteousness, but he is also a preacher who is not backward about giving utterance to a political truth now and then. He is just now telling the Prohibition leaders that they think more of party than of principles. Sam has been in the Prohibition army, and he ought to know.

THE Kansas City Star must have been meditating upon the members of the present Democratic Administration when it said: "It used to be that men went into politics for reputation and on patriotic convictions. Now they enter the field of politics, too often, for the boodie that may be in it." Too true, too true, brother, and perhaps it is the courage of defeat that enables you to point out the fact.

If the South is honest in its assertion that it does not believe in a sectional President, it should be only too glad to be rid of Mr. Cleveland, for, as the Charleston News at last very sensibly admits: "There was too much South in Mr. Cleveland's administration." But there will be no sectionalism in Gen. Harrison's policy. He will be a national President, looking out for the welfare of every part of the Republic. He is not a man who will be likely to sell himself to any section for the sake of a second term.

TEXAS does not look with favor upon the scheme which has been broached of cutting up her territory into two or three States, so as to strengthen the Democracy by giving it several more Congressmen and electoral votes, by which to offset the increased strength which will accrue to the Republican party from the new States in the Northwest. Texas would not feel half as much pride in the success of the Democratic party as she takes in surveying her big domain, an empire in itself and rich in its varied harvests.

Senator Stanford's Visit.

The reception of Senator Stanford yesterday, upon his arrival in this city, by the committees of the Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce, and other citizens, was a successful affair, conducted with good taste and decorum, and the result of the Senator's visit, we think, will be good. He took a keen and intelligent interest in what he saw, and was especially impressed with the favorable natural features and large possibilities of San Pedro harbor. He recognizes the commercial importance of the port and the need of a safe and commodious artificial harbor there, adequate to the wants of the present and of the future. His expressions of interest, and good will towards the southern country were all that could be desired by our people, and he went away leaving them hopeful of the future, so far as legislation in Congress is concerned.

The Senator thinks that any bill that may be got through the House of Representatives for the improvement of San Pedro Harbor will not meet an unfriendly fate in the Senate. He is also of opinion that California should have representation on the House Committee of Commerce, and in that connection spoke in terms of emphatic praise of Gen. Vandever as a "hard worker" and practical legislator. At present California has no representation on the Commerce Committee of either house.

The subject of State division came up in the course of the various conversations, and Mr. Stanford spoke freely about it. He is naturally opposed to the scheme, arguing that "one strong State is a great deal better than two weak ones." There was nothing in what he said, however, that could be construed into bitter opposition, illiberality or unfairness on the Senator's part.

Upon returning from San Pedro, Mr. Stanford (his time being limited) was driven rapidly through portions of the city, inspecting a few of the principal business streets and the hill portion of the residence quarter. He was much surprised and pleased with what he saw.

Upon parting with his hosts at the door of his private car, Mr. Stanford remarked to one of the committee, substantially: "If my efforts can secure for your city the needed harbor improvements at San Pedro, you shall have them."

This expression shows the bent of the Senatorial mind, and our people, having the good sense to appreciate his attitude, will not, we feel sure, embarrass him or his colleagues in their work by any improper or unusual demands, or by projecting into the Congressional arena any disturbing issues before their time.

The object now before Los Angeles is the securing of needed harbor improvements.

Popular Liberty—The Rule of the People.

The first triumph of the Republican party was not a triumph accepted peacefully. Although it was the result of the will of the majority honestly expressed at the ballot-box, a sectional minority refused to accept the popular will, and the country was plunged into all the horrors of civil strife. How unlike that awful tempest of war is the peace and prosperity which follows the recent hotly-contested campaign in which the Democratic party was defeated? The most patent issues were at stake, and never were party lines more distinctly drawn, nor party views more widely at variance, and yet without any appreciable murmur of discontent, the verdict of the popular will has been accepted, and those who a few weeks since wrangled in partisan bitterness are now working cheerfully together for the general advancement of the country. The fierce whirlwind of opposing sentiment leaves not a ripple upon the sea of our daily intercourse. In this respect the American people are the wonder of all civilized nations. They do not understand how our bitterness can be so soon healed; nor how fiery political factions can be so speedily brought under control. The great problem of our universal love of liberty, nor the strength which there is in sovereign citizenship, has never been brought home to them. There was not power enough in English dollars to purchase the votes of the intelligent workmen of America, and to this fact America owes the hopes of her future today. Although the American people is made up in a considerable degree from the Old-World nations, which foster an aristocratic form of government, a few years in the enjoyment of the blessings of republican freedom is sufficient to open their eyes to the inestimable blessings conferred upon them by the right of sovereign citizenship. In the great national school of our political campaigns they become, like those born upon American soil, close students of the economy of government, and they are not slow to perceive that a nation of lawmakers is better and safer than a throne. Thus, without bitterness, without danger to the interests of the Nation, do we pass through these great political crises, and come out from them stronger, more united and more hopeful of our future.

The people can be trusted; they are stronger, safer more, patriotic, than presidents or kings.

Olives.

A branch from an olive tree grown in the Laurence olive orchard, one mile east from Pomona, has been shown in the Times office. It was filled with plump dark olives, as fine in appearance as could be grown anywhere. The gentleman who brought them to this office says that the ten acres in orchard were fairly loaded with fruit. The two varieties grown in this orchard are the Picoline and the Mission. The Mission variety produces a large and tempting-looking fruit, while the Picoline is somewhat smaller. The samples shown furnish good evidence that the olive culture will pay at Pomona. Nearly every tree in this ten-acre orchard was filled with fruit. Any section that grows the olive successfully will flourish if it produces nothing else.

Olive growing is destined to become one of the most valuable industries of this section. The olive takes kindly to the soil of Southern California, and a good olive orchard, if properly located, will always be a safe and profitable investment.

The sentiment here touching State division, so far as it has developed itself informally, is divided. The weightier and more conservative feeling seems to be that it would not be expedient, at this time, to jeopardize present interests by pushing the scheme with undue haste, or attempt to set up State house-keeping for ourselves before we have exhausted all efforts to secure from the State Government that consideration and those rights to which we believe ourselves entitled by virtue of our position, population, area, wealth and political importance. Meantime, there may be no harm in the bill introduced by Representative Vandever. It will prove, if not a sword held in terrorem over the heads of our esteemed contemporaries of the north, at least a reminder that we "mean business" when the time comes.

SENATOR STANFORD impresses himself upon those who come in contact with him as a keen and level-headed man, who is quick to detect flunkeyism in persons and slush in journalism. He appears to have no use for tadies or smooth citizens.

A SPIRITUALISTIC colony is the latest thing in Santa Barbara county. It will be a cranky affair, another Topobampo-like scheme that will probably fail to materialize to any very great extent.

Sec. 3. North California shall include in its boundaries all the remaining part of the State of California not included in the boundaries of South California.

Sec. 4. HE FOOLED 'EM.

How a Countryman Got Away with Team.

News was received at police headquarters yesterday morning of the burglarizing of Beville's livery stable, at Santa Monica, some time during the night of Wednesday last. Accordingly, Chief of Detectives Harris took the matter in hand, and as the result of his inquiries he ascertained that a man driving a fine double team attached to a light-colored carriage, and wearing a harness at the stores of W. F. McBurney, on Spring street, and Z. Reed of East First street, but had not succeeded, and the team was finally traced to a livery stable close by, where it had been kept. The man was then taken to the contents, which were covered over with buggy robes, revealed to the astonished onlookers a number of full sets of harness, etc., and an answer was at once called to watch the stable and the burglar when he returned to recover the property. However, he had not up to the hour of going to press evaded. In the meanwhile Mr. Howell came up to Santa Monica, and, identifying the following articles, was allowed to take them back with him: Five single sets harness, two double sets, buggy robes and whips and one buggy cushion.

As usual of late, the rival department were at loggerheads over the matter, and the culprit of course got away before they could make up their minds as to what course to pursue, Harris claiming that the man had been scared away from the neighborhood by the actions of the officer deputed to watch the case, while the Chief, on the other hand, says that the man was undoubtedly warned in time by the indiscretion of the detectives and a deputy sheriff, in discussing the matter on the corner of a public thoroughfare in loud tones.

A Crank.

An Italian, who gave the name of John Dietrich, rushed hither and breathlessly into the police station at an early hour this morning and, between his gasps for breath, managed to jerk out the startling information that he had just been held up on Alameda street, by three men, and robbed of $30 in cash. On regaining his composure, he gave the story with such minute attention to detail that it was believed that there might be something in it, and a Times man went to the alleged scene to investigate.

As might have been expected, it was found that the whole narrative was an fabrication of a whiskey-beated brain, the officer on that beat having sent the man home only a few minutes before to keep him out of mischief.

The Government Asked to Interfere Against the Operations of a Coal Monopoly in Alaska.—A Free-college Measure Introduced.—Washington News.

By Telegram to the Times.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—[By the Associated Press.] Senator Blair introduced a bill today providing that there shall be established by the President on recommendation of the Commissioner of Labor throughout the United States, in geographical sections which shall include a population of not less than 100,000, nor more than 2,000,000 inhabitants, bureaus of information relating to employment, occupations, wants, means of livelihood and homes. Provision is made for the publication at least once a month of an abstract giving information collected, and for the giving, free of charge, of any information specifically asked for by any citizen of the United States. It is also made the duty of the chiefs of the bureaus to make known throughout their districts instances of extreme poverty, hardship and distress without needless exposure of name of parties, and also to report the same to the Commissioner of Labor, who shall report such information briefly to Congress with a recommendation of such means of relief as may seem to him to be wise and necessary. It is also made the duty of the bureaus of information to make special inquiry in relation to the condition, wants and necessities of women and children, to publish the results of their investigations, with a view to arousing and directing charitable or other efforts and thereby securing employment, homes, education and such other relief as each case may require. The President and his departments are required to give employment on public works only to American citizens and to give preference in employing persons resident in the vicinity of the work to be done.

A PUBLIC HEALTH MEASURE. Senator Manderson today introduced a bill for the establishment of a national pathological laboratory at Washington for the study and investigation of the nature and cause of contagious and infectious diseases which threaten and endanger the health of the people and live-stock interests of the country. The laboratory is to be under the general supervision of the Surgeon-General of the Marine Hospital Service and under the special direction of two directors, one of whom shall be skilled in human and the other in animal diseases. A chemist distinguished for learning is also to be employed. An appropriation of $300,000 is made for the purchase of ground, erection of a building and purchase of the necessary apparatus and appliances.

A SILVER BILL. Senator Reagan today introduced a bill for the free coinage of silver. It provides that all holders of silver bullion of the value of $20 or more shall be entitled to have it coined into standard silver dollars of 412½ grains Troy to the dollar, upon the same terms and conditions as gold is now coined for private holders.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE. The Republican National Executive Committee at its session today discussed the propriety of establishing a permanent national headquarters in this city, in the building now occupied by the committee. No decision, however, has yet been reached. The question of the prospective contests in West Virginia and other States has not been discussed by the committee. What ever interests the national committee have in these disputed districts are being looked after by Chairman Quay, who has thus far made no report to the committee.

GOV. SWINEFORD'S COMPLAINT.

A. P. Swineford, Governor of Alaska, in a letter to the Secretary of the Interior, represents that through what he believes to have been, to say the least, an absurd decision of the late Judge of the United States Court for Alaska, private parties have secured possession of the Government wharf at Sitka, and now monopolize the coal trade. He says the vessels of the Pacific Steamship Company refuse to land coal for anybody but the parties in possession of the wharf, and they in consequence are able to extort exorbitant prices. The Governor asks that the senior naval officer stationed there be authorized to supply the civil authorities with coal at cost. The letter has been referred to the Navy Department.

A RESTRICTION ACT RULING.

Assistant Secretary Maynard, in a letter to the Collector of Customs at San Francisco, says that while Chinese merchants are not affected by the Chinese Exclusion Act, the department must decline to issue instructions regarding the manner of identifying Chinese merchants on their arrival in the United States. He says also, in regard to the department's previous instructions relative to certificates which, "for convenience" will be issued to Chinese persons other than laborers, that the Collector should be full authority to disregard them. Especially so in view of his intimation that such certificates are fraudulently used by Chinese laborers.

AN EXPOSITION CONUNDRUM.

In the Senate today a communication from the Secretary of State with a certified copy of the final ascertainment of the presidential electors in Kansas, was presented. The Presiding officer asked the opinion of the Senate (this being an entirely new proceeding) as to the disposition to be made of the papers, whether they should be entered on the journal, or placed in the archives of the Senate. They were finally referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

THE WORLD'S SILVER MARKET.

The Secretary of the Treasury, in response to Senator Stewart's resolution of inquiry today, transmitted to the Senate a statement from the director of the mint, showing the amount of silver bullion purchased each month since 1878, the price paid, and from whom it was purchased. The statement also gave the date of the Senate's resolution asking for quotations of India Council bills in London enter into the determination to any extent of what is the market price of silver bullion in the United States. The Secretary replied: "I have the honor to state that the quotations of India Council bills in London so far enter into the determination of the market price of silver bullion in the United States as these quotations enter into the market price of silver bullion in London, the market price in London determining, as is well known, the current market price in all other parts of the world, with minute differences as affected by the cost of transportation of silver bullion to London."

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—[By the Associated Press.] Senate.—In the Senate several bills were introduced and referred, including the following:

By Mr. Stewart: To open to actual settlers the abandoned military reservations in Nevada.

By Mr. Manderson: For the establishment of a national biological laboratory.

By Mr. Blair: To organize Government bureaus of information relating to employment, occupations, wants, means of livelihood and homes.

The Senate resumed consideration of the tariff bill, beginning with earthenware and glassware.

Mr. McPherson said the rates provided in the Senate bill were increased on existing rates more than 10 per cent. His own State was largely interested in those industries, but he did not believe they needed the amount of protection proposed. The Mills bill, he thought, accorded to them all the protection they needed.

Mr. Plumb called attention to the paragraph as to silvered glass (No. 115), and said that such glass was largely used by furniture manufacturers and was almost entirely foreign made, because the silvering of such glass in the United States was not durable. The duty added $3 or $5 to the cost of a bureau, and if the article was not made in this country he did not see why the duty should not be reduced.

Mr. Allison did not know why such glass could not be properly silvered in the United States, and suggested that it might be on account of the duty being too low. It being only equal to 10 per cent. ad valorem.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of schedule "C," relating to metals. Mr. Plumb called attention to the paragraph as to beams, girders and joists. He spoke of the iron and steel combinations in this country, and instanced the cases of the Government building at Wichita and the State house at Austin, Tex., where a large saving had been effected by contracting for such work abroad. He moved to amend by reducing the rate from 11-10 cents to 8-10 cents per pound.

Mr. Harris moved to put the rate at six-tenths of 1 cent.

Mr. Allison opposed Harris's amendment, saying it went to the root of the whole matter. He had no doubt if the present rate were maintained that competition would be sufficient in a short time to break down prices.

Adjourned until Monday. House.—In the House formal notice of the resignation of Perry Belmont, to accept the Ministry to Spain, was received. The report of the Committee on the President's message, referring parts to appropriate committees, was received.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the report of the Committee on the Direct Tax Bill. Mr. Caswell explained that the purpose of the bill was to refund to States and individuals who paid tax, that portion of the direct tax which was collected, and said the bill carried $15,233,000. This did not include 15 per cent. commission allowed the States or parties who collected the tax. The amount to be cancelled, now uncollected, was $2,522,000. He sent to the Clerk's desk and had read a series of amendments, which he proposed to offer at the proper time. The first amended the cotton tax. The second permits persons who paid the tax to bring suit in the Court of Claims to recover the amount paid. The third revises the right of action in the Court of Claims under the provisions of the Captured and Abandoned Property Act. The fourth directs the Secretary of the Treasury in making payment and settlement of the direct tax into account and set off any amount due by any State to the United States, under the act of June 23, 1838, "To receive deposits of public money."

After some further debate Mr. Enloe of Tennessee sent to the desk and had read, for information, the proposed amendment refunding the cotton tax, and providing that such amount as cannot be paid to persons who have paid the tax shall be turned over to the school funds of the States interested.

Pending further debate the committee arose and the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

A Mysterious Leak in the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—[By the Associated Press.] Another irregularity has been discovered in the Treasury Department, arising from the mysterious disappearance between the receiving office and the Treasury of 10 uncut sheets of legal tender, each containing four notes of the denomination of $5, and representing $200 in all. While it is possible that the sheets were mislaid and may be recovered, it is more than possible they were abstracted by some one familiar with the method of handling them. The notes will readily pass for money, for they lack only the treasury seal.

Sig. Crispi, Prime Minister, said that he did not think the Government would abandon Massowah. Italy desired solely to exercise a civilizing mission, and did not aspire to conquests. In regard to the relations between France and Italy, Sig. Crispi said: "Our relations with France, which lately were not entirely satisfactory, are now not only good, but cordial and friendly. Nothing justifies the supposition that was with France is probable or near. Nevertheless, in view of the situation throughout Europe, Italy cannot dream of disarming. On the contrary, owing to her position and engagements, she must labor to perfect her armaments."

THE KENTUCK MINE.

How Ex-Gov. Stevenson Milling Ore for a Consideration.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—[By the Associated Press.] Ex-Gov. Stevenson of Nevada was the principal witness today in the suit brought against him by Washington Smith to recover $550,000, out of which, it is alleged, the Governor and certain directors of the Kentucky mine had defrauded the stockholders. His evidence was chiefly details of receipts from the mine while the Governor was milling ore under contract. The footings showed that during 13 months the Governor had mined 5639 tons of ore, which he worked in his own mill. The expense of production was $132,069, and the billion value was $156,029, giving a profit to Stevenson of $23,960. The Governor thought he had lost $40,000 or $50,000 in working the mine since 1885. He stated that he had paid the Kentucky company $73,402 in royalties on his contract.

Wales Palmer, a codefendant in the case, stated that the Board of Directors had refused to accept an offer of $25,000 for a contract for milling the ore for five years, as made by George T. Marye, Jr., as they regarded Stevenson's contract as more valuable.

THE RELIEF FAIR.

A Big Crowd and Everybody Happy.

A social hop was the attraction at Army Hall last evening, and it drew a great crowd to fill the coffers of the relief fair. Comrade Fairbanks, who officiated as floor manager, places yesterday's receipts at from $600 to $700, almost all of which is clear profit. The expenses have been light, as most everything in the fair has been donated, and the proceeds of the first two nights put a balance on the right side of the books.

Last evening Fred Doh's orchestra sat on the stage and played in great shape in front of a stockade around a rebel prison pen. Their surroundings did not discourage them, for the stockade was only a painted one and is to be used tonight in some military drama or tableau. It looks pretty natural, so an old soldier said, and is apparently made of timber some eight feet high, with a Gothic gateway in the middle.

While the orchestra played away in their prison the business at the booths was for a time almost abandoned, and the fair vendors of notions waited around on the floor with their gentlemen friends. A great many outsiders attended for the purpose of enjoying the dance, and all the available space was occupied. The gallery, too, was well filled by those who came to look on and enjoy the brilliant spectacle presented below.

It is needless to say that the audience was of the best social standing, and that the affair was thoroughly enjoyable from start to finish. During an intermission, Miss Alice McManus, by special request, favored the audience with a vocal solo. It was a waltz serenade, and was rendered with exquisite taste. She was applauded loud and long, and testified her appreciation by giving a vocal schottische, which again brought down the house.

After this the audience hopped socially on till about 10:30, when Comrade Fairbanks marched the musicians out of their stockade, and everybody got ready to go home.

In the intervals between the dances, the social hop ran a full gamut in its temple of snow, and the ice-cream grotto was well patronized by the many waiters. The booths, too, did an intermittent business, but their best lay was in the afternoon and early evening.

A few of the articles have already been auctioned off, and the regular sales have brought a steady stream of silverware to the coffers of the fair. Other auctions will be held today, but the bulk of the sales will be made at the grand wind-up on Saturday evening, when the hall will be crowded, and the proceeds will be turned over to the relief fund. It is noteworthy, however, that there has been very little of the begging and soliciting to buy, which makes fair for the occasion. The impetuous and soft-hearted young man.

The voting on different schemes seems to lag a little. The firemen's cry which has rolled out of the Chicago fire department and 47 for Strohm. The hand-painted apron is so far Miss Carrie Patterson's by 17 votes. The newspaper contest is at a standstill. A grand new pair of steel hand cuffs, tied with brightest ribbon, hangs like a memento mori in front of the hat stand, ready, apparently, for him who shall collar his neighbor's hat. They are, however, to be voted for to the most popular police officer, and Boland and Bowler have one vote each.

The booths are as bright and prosperous as ever and do a rattling good business. In the fancy booth a pair of baby's slippers knitted by Mrs. Jessie Benton-Fremont was raffled off yesterday to Mr. Taylor. Mrs. Roberts won a clock, and Mrs. Denny a valuable point-lace handkerchief.

At the paper booth Mrs. Denny will show the inquiring visitor the Vicksburg Citizen published the day after the battle of Vicksburg. She also has Confederate bonds, documents of the days of George II, and a pile of unsold Trombones.

Tonight the entertainment will be entirely of a literary cast. There will be an amateur drama, recitations, songs, tableaux vivants and other pleasing features. There will be scenery specially prepared for the occasion, and a first-class time for all who attend.

Half a carload of products will probably be secured. Securing the Leaning Tower of the Board of Horticulture has contributed a section of an orange tree more than one foot in thickness and about five feet high, showing the cross-section of the trunk of the tree. A son of William Wolfkill, who presented it to Mr. Leong, planted the tree from which it was taken in 1892 on his ranch in Los Angeles. Last season it bore 5000 oranges.

PURE WATER!

There is today no question of sanitary science of greater vital importance to humanity than that of the quality of water entering into our daily domestic economy.

Wholesome water is a prime necessity, and a priceless blessing to man.

A very valuable and important discovery was made by the Coronado Beach Company a few months since, while investigating the water supply of the Otay Valley, San Diego county. They came upon a series of living springs, the water of which has similar properties to

THE WAUKESHA WATER.

Clear, bright, agreeable to the eye and refreshing to the taste; one spring already yields 5,000,000 gallons per day, and other springs can, by development, be made to yield equal quantities.

This water has been piped to South San Diego, Coronado Heights, and Coronado Beach, and used with the utmost satisfaction and favorable results.

AN ANALYSIS

Made of this late discovery by the celebrated chemist, C. Gilbert Wheeler of Chicago, shows that it is exceptionally pure, and is possessed of highly medicinal qualities, which act as directly and favorably on all kidney troubles as

THE WAUKESHA WATER.

The above is fully borne out by the result of its use for several months among the guests of the Hotel del Coronado. Many severe cases have been greatly improved, and others completely cured.

Mr. H. Ludington, son, and Mr. Edward Elliott, son-in-law, of ex-Gov. Ludington of Wisconsin, both now guests at the Hotel del Coronado, have been using the water, and find the result highly beneficial. They freely pronounce it equal in its curative powers and remedial qualities to the famous waters of the celebrated Waukesha Springs of Wisconsin, which they have used there for the past 18 years.

New York, Dec. 6.—The action of the Missouri Pacific directors, which became known generally after the close of the board last evening, was the main cause of a complete change in the temper of the local speculators, and today's stock market was in marked contrast to that of yesterday, being strong almost throughout the entire day, although the greatest advance was made in the afternoon, when shorts ran to cover very freely. There was more confidence all around displayed than has been seen in weeks, and buying for long account was renewed after a long interruption, the feeling in favor of a higher range of values becoming very pronounced. The close was active and decidedly strong at the highest prices of the day.
